OCTOBER 2020

BEARING WITNESS

with work from Ty Hilton, Eze Amos, Derrick J. Waller, Marley Nichelle & Sandy Williams IV.

Keep this book
as a souvenir of your visit!

Based on exhibition prompts written by Destinee Wright.

RECLAIM SPACE

We hope to remove and replace all Confederate statues. Think of a person or group of people that inspires you. Draw a new “monument” to celebrate them. What should people know about them? How have they made the world a better place?

PROTEST SIGNS

Think about a cause that is important to you. What do you want to change? What do you want to tell the world? Design your own protest sign below.

CREATING JOY

In Revolution Song by Derrick J. Waller, a drummer makes music and people dance at Charlottesville's Black Joy Fest.

What makes you happy?
How do you create joy?
Write some words or ideas below.

WHAT IS COMMUNITY?

Image by Marley Nichelle

Community can mean friends, family, or even strangers, united by common values. Who is your community? Draw them below.

TELL A STORY

Sandy Williams IV makes multimedia, sculpture, photography, and video art. His artwork often makes a statement about the world. If you were making a protest video, what would it be about? Plan four “scenes” from your video below to tell your story.
